BTE Technologies, Inc. Names David Joyner, MD to Clinical Consulting Role and Advisory Board

HANOVER, MD & GREENWOOD VILLAGE, Colo.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--May 11, 2006--BTE Technologies, Inc., announced today the appointment of David Joyner, MD as a Medical Consultant for Sports Medicine and Orthopedics.

In his new role, Dr. Joyner will be responsible for consultative participation in product development, program development and clinical expansion of BTE products and services. Dr. Joyner will also serve on BTE's Clinical Advisory Board.

Dr. Joyner brings to BTE a wealth of experience in the orthopedic and sports medicine arena. He is currently an orthopedic physician at the University Orthopedics Center in State College, Pennsylvania. Dr. Joyner serves on the Pennsylvania State University Board of Trustees and Penn State's Milton S. Hershey Medical Center Board of Directors. Dr. Joyner was Founder, Chair and CEO of Joyner Sports Medicine Institute. In addition to academic and clinical expertise, Dr. Joyner has served as Chair of the Sports Medicine Committee of the United States Olympic Committee and Head Physician for the U.S.A. team at Albertville Olympic Winter Games. As well, he has been on the Pan American games Medical Commission since 1995.

"Dr. Joyner's experience in sports medicine and orthopedics, with a focus on optimal function and performance, will further enhance BTE's development of clinical applications directed toward better outcomes for our thousands of clinic professionals who use BTE equipment," says Thomas P. Rogan, CEO of BTE Technologies, Inc.

Dr. Joyner is a Diplomate with the American Board of Orthopedic Surgery and the National Board of Medical Examiners. Dr. Joyner is currently a member of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine, the American College of Surgeons, the Arthroscopy Association of North America, the American Orthopedic Society for Sports Medicine, the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons, the American Medical Association and the American College of Sports Medicine; along with other national, state and local organizations.
